TRONO DEGLI AVUZZI

NERO DI TROIA - MURGIA ROSSO I.G.P.
PROTECTED GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

Primitivo is one of Puglia's most noble and ancient grape varieties. Benedictine monks first imported it into the area in the early 19th century, probably from Croatia. It is trained exclusively to the bush (alberello) method, and its yield per hectare is by nature quite low. Because of their exposition and elevation, the vineyards exhibit a distinctive personality compared to primitivo vineyards elsewhere in Puglia; the wine is not quite as high in alcohol, although it remains powerful in this respect, and it possesses an elegance and fragrance that set it apart from other wines produced from the same grape.
